Author & Motivational Speaker

Bio

Danielle's life could almost be misconstrued for a novel itself. Danielle is a professional author and poet. She wrote her debut novel, "Against All Odds: The Ruby Princess" at fourteen years old and published it at seventeen. She became a professional model in print and on runway at ten. Danielle became a professional actress at twelve; doing commercials, theatre, and acting in a pilot series with Haley Duff and Shelly Duval. She has won many international pageants. A former dance teacher, she has been dancing from an early age, winning awards for her choreography and dancing while performing internationally. Like the characters from her first novel, at eighteen she received her Coat of Arms from France. Her full name is Danielle Nicole Bienvenu, Lady of Estons; or simply known as Lady Estons.

Danielle began song-writing at the age of six and writing stories at ten. She has her Master's from Oxford Brookes University in England in International Law and International Relations with focus on human rights, two certificates from Harvard University in Justice and National Security and a certificate in Counter-Terrorism from Georgetown University. She also holds two Bachelor's degrees from Lamar University in Political Science and French with a minor in Creative Writing. As a former French teacher, Danielle is fluent in French as well as English but she also dabbles in Spanish, German, American Sign Language, Hebrew, and Mandarin. After living abroad in Europe, traveling around the world, and teaching English in China, she decided to return to her native Texas.

Danielle is a seasoned missionary who likes beads and feathers. She enjoys playing guitar to her own beat, dancing in grocery store aisles, and singing whenever the urge strikes. She is often found with pen in hand. She has two furry babies, her Golden Retrievers: Duchess Annabelle and Toby Maximus. It isn't uncommon to find her in a recording studio or performing her acoustic-folk-indie music in her spare time. She loves to read as much as she enjoys writing.

Danielle is best known for her mystery and psychological thrillers, romance novels, poetic symbolism, and works against social injustices. Her genres range from thrillers, mystery, romance, historical fiction, drama, young adult, paranormal, comedy, poetry, nouveau romain, Christian and novellas. To date, she has 16 published novels.
